On the afternoon of Tuesday, October 13th, Dallas Police responded to a business in the 100 Block of East Ellendale due to the reported presence of an adult male whom there was a felony warrant for his arrest. The male had a history of elude, robbery and obstructing officers. When Dallas Police arrived on scene, the male took off running through yards and jumping fences attempting to elude officers. With help from the Polk County Sheriff's Office, a perimeter was set up and the male was then detained at gunpoint.

Levi Emminger, a 35 year old male from Dallas, was arrested by Dallas Police and lodged at the Polk County Jail on the felony warrant and for Escape in the Third Degree.
